

Dierks Bentley - Talk Points - 1/31/25

- Touted as “King of the Breakup Song” (Vice), Dierks Bentley’s new single “She Hates Me” is a playful anti-love anthem that blends country with a grungy edge, available on Valentine’s Day (2/14) on country radio and streaming platforms. The casual cool of Bentley’s smoky vocal remains in form, floating on a warm buzz of garage-rocking guitars, grooving drums and spirited hooks.
- Caught somewhere between a revenge-filled reality and a heartbroken man’s bourbon induced fantasy, the official music video for “She Hate Me” finds Bentley trapped in a looping nightmare haunted by an ex-girlfriend. Fans can watch the dark, steamy video’s every twist on 2/14.
- TOUR INFO, EMBARGOED UNTIL 2/17: Bentley is hitting the road again this summer on the BROKEN BRANCHES TOUR, which kicks off May 29 in Austin, Texas. With support from Zach Top and The Band Loula, the tour is produced by Live Nation—for more information and to get your tickets this Friday (2/21), visit Dierks.com.
- Over his storied two-decade career, Bentley has garnered 22 No. One songs, eight billion streams, three CMA Awards, 15 GRAMMY® nominations, and membership into the Grand Ole Opry.
- Recently launched, ROW 94 is a Kentucky Straight Bourbon formulated at the historic Green River Distilling Co. in Owensboro, KY with just “Three Ingredients and the Truth”: Premium Grain, Purified Kentucky Limestone Water, and Cultivated Yeast. Dierks’ dream was to create a bourbon that he and his fans could enjoy “on the big nights and at everyday gatherings, amplifying the country in us all.” Read more HERE.
